

Alaska Agriculture

Answer Sheet

1. What grain is grown the most in Alaska?

Barley

2. What vegetable is grown the most in Alaska?

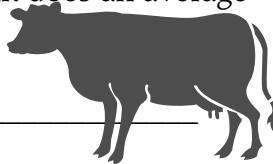

Potatoes

3. How fast can a honey bee fly?

15 miles per hour

4. How many pounds of milk does an average cow give at each milking?

about 40

5. Elk is a diversified livestock that is raised in Alaska. Can you name two others?

bison, musk ox, reindeer, llama, alpaca

6. What small creature helps the soil by adding air and droppings?

worms

7. What does this symbol mean?

product was grown or raised in Alaska

8. What do pigs lack that makes pigs like to roll in the mud on a hot day?

sweat glands

9. For what two products do farmers and ranchers raise sheep?

wool

lamb or mutton

10. What is a baby horse called?

foal

11. What tree's sap is used to produce syrup in Alaska?

birch

12. Name three other Alaska ag products:

hay, broccoli, carrots and other vegetables, dairy and beef products, pork, lingonberries, oats, wheat

13. Name two other industries in Alaska that rely on natural resources besides agriculture:

forestry, oil, fisheries, mining, tourism

This activity presented by Alaska Agriculture in the Classroom, a USDA program, and its primary Alaska sponsor, Alaska Farm Bureau, with assistance of Alaska Grown grant funds from the Alaska Division of Agriculture. To learn more about Alaska AITC, visit www.agclassroom.org/ak, email AlaskaAITC@wildak.net or call 907-895-4012.