

Alaska Agriculture

We can all grow together.

1. What is the world record weight (in pounds) for a carrot, which was grown in Alaska?
A. 5                      B. 9                      C. 12                      D. 19                      E. 25
2. What area of Alaska has the highest value of on-farm production?
A. Matanuska    B. Tanana              C. Kenai                  D. Kodiak                  E. Southeast
3. How many flowers must a honey bee visit to make one pound of honey?
A. 500,000        B. 1 million            C. 2 million            D. 4 million            E. 10 million
4. In 1999, Alaska farmers supplied about what percent of Alaskans' food?
A. 1                      B. 2                      C. 4                      D. 8                      E. 16
5. One cow can give how many glasses of milk in a life time?
A. 200                  B. 2,000                C. 20,000                D. 200,000                E. 2 million
6. What percent of Alaska's acreage is under agricultural production?
A. less than 1    B. 2                      C. 5                      D. 10                      E. 13
7. An acre of land is about the same size as what sort of pro sport court, arena or field?
A. handball        B. basketball        C. football            D. baseball            E. hockey
8. What vegetable is grown in all 50 states (Alaska grows about 13 million pounds each year) and makes America's favorite snacks?
A. cabbage        B. potato              C. carrot              D. cucumber        E. corn
9. How to Alaska producers specially mark their products as local?
A. Brand X        B. Last Frontier    C. Alaska Grown    D. It's Good        E. Buy Me
10. There are 12 orders of soil in the world, one unique to Alaska's permafrost is called?
A. Gelisol        B. Histosol        C. Barrensol        D. Frostosol        E. Oxisol
11. What is the sixth-leading industry in Alaska?
A. oil                B. tourism            C. aviation            D. mining            E. agriculture
12. What vegetable, highest in vitamin A, is grown commercially in Alaska?
A. carrots        B. cauliflower      C. sweet potatoes    D. pumpkins        E. radishes

This activity presented by Alaska Agriculture in the Classroom, a USDA program, and its primary Alaska sponsor, Alaska Farm Bureau, supplemented by a grant from the Alaska Division of Agriculture. To learn more about Alaska AITC, visit www.agclassroom.org/ak, email AlaskaAITC@wildak.net or call 907-895-4012.